A Fine Farm. One of the finest farms in Lancaster county is that presided over by Mr. George W. Graver, in Donegal township, and owned by United States Senator J. Donald Cameron. There are between three hundred and four hundred acres of fine cultivated lands, divided off into fields of from 20 to 75 acres each, which produce the very best crops of corn, wheat, to bacco, etc. The coming crops look fine, particularly the 85 acres of wheat. Mr. Graver will plant upwards of thirty acres of tobacco. He has now the finest beds of tobacco plants in the county. These plants will be ready for use in about one week. The farm is stocked with the very best breeds. The forty-nine head of cattle just now ready for the market are perfect beauties, and it is a real pleasure to look at them. They would make glad the heart of any Philadelphia or New York butcher. Mr. Graver is just the man for such a plantation, and what he don't know about farming, stock raising and tobacco is not worth knowing .- Columbia

Again in Limbo. Yesterday Officers Lentz and Titus, of this city, went to Quarryville armed with a letter for the arrest of Paul Quigley. About dark he was gobbled up at Rochm's National hotel in the village. He made a desperate attempt to get away from the officers, and had nearly all the clothes torn from his back before he succumbed. The offense with which he is charged is the larceny of about 180 pounds of pig lead belonging to the city; which it is alleged he stole from the reservoir grounds some weeks ago and tried to sell to a dealer in old metals. The lead was afterwards found by some children in a lot on North Christian street above James, where the thief had secreted it. Quigley was locked up increasing, and our customers speak in the for a hearing, the time for which has not highest terms of their value. Several cases of yet been fixed.

A Young Telegrapher.

J. K. Bartley, aged 15 years, was a few days ago put in charge of the Pennsylvania railroad telegraph office at Dillerville. Though young in years he is quite a master of the art, having taken a thorough course of instruction from his brother, G. M. Bartley, the efficient night operator at at the office in the depot, this city.

Fight Last Night. Last evening about 6 o'clock a fight took place at the American hose house, on Church street, in which there was a great deal more noise than blood, and the young men who took part in it will have an opportunity of telling what they know about it before Alderman Barr.

Phaeton Broken. Last evening between 6 and 7 o'clock Samuel Rudy, one of the proprietors of the Leopard hotel, and ex-Recorder Samuel Martin were driving along North Queen street, near Orange in a phaeton when the wheel of the vehicle struck the street car track and the hind axle was broken in

The Work of a Scoundrel. A few days ago some one entered the yard of John Franciscus and kicked his fine hunting dog so badly that the animal died yesterday from his injuries.

ONE of the old settlers of Toledo, Ohio, Mr. Wm. Henzler, Druggist, sends the following communication, which we gladly publish for the benefit of many sufferers: Judging from my own experience, I must admit that the Sr. JACOB'S OIL IS An excellent remedy for Rheumatism. For weeks I had not been able to step on my foot ; but I used the St. Jacob's Oil. and all pain disappeared in a short time.

Facts Worth Considering. Can anyone afford to deny themselves the advantages to be obtained by a membership in the New Era life association. No company ever turnished "insurance" at so low a rate Example: Certificate No. 1, age 37, May 9, 1876 for $5,000 is still in force; cost, $144.60-$7.23 per thousand per year. For $204.88 paid to the as sociation by members now deceased, the associ Tommy Mack, who has been traveling ation have actually paid to their heirs $11,073. 50. There was a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in assessment No. 4 and thirty per cent. in assessment No. 5. As is shown above, the larger the membership the lower the cost. The comof age. $15,000 now in force.

> Religious. The Rev. J. V. Eckert will preach on next Sunday, May 9, in Mount Eden church, Eden township, in the morning at 10 o'clock, and in the afternoon, at 21/2 o'clock in the new church at Refton, Strasburg township.

New York Independent, Rep. One of the most notorious of these corruptionists is Mr. William H. Kemble, a bank president and president of a railroad company. He was a sort of Tweed in the Quaker city. When, before the legislative committee, he was questioned in regard to the bribery clause in the constitution, and replied: "I know that the constitution has a lot of stuff in it that none of you live up to, and I am no better than other people," it was high time that the bribing villain and his associates in crime were brought to justice. He had practically assumed that he was above law; and when, by the advice of his counsel, he plead guilty, and thus acknowledged before the court what under oath he had denied before the legislative committee, he did not expect any punishment other than merely nominal, consisting in a small fine, which he could easily pay from his ample ex-

We are sorry to add that the court of pardons, with unseemly haste, held a special session within four days after the sentence, and, after brief deliberation, decided to recommend the remission of the sentence so far as imprisonment is concerned. The main ground of the recommendation is that the law of 1874 provides for simple imprisonment and says nothing about confinement in the penitentiary. If Judge Pearson erred in the sentence, as we do not think he did, the proper remedy was to apply for a writ of habeas corpus to the supreme court; and hence there was no necessity for any action on the part of the court of pardons, certainly not until this remedy fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician. had been tried. It looks as if it were a foregone conclusion with this court and with Gov. Hoyt that these convi ers should be suffered to escape the chief disgraced, and the state of Pennsylvania is atoned for the crime by suffering the sentence awarded by Judge Pearson. We record our earnest protest against such a wanton abuse of the pa doning power. The indecent haste with which the whole thing was done more than suggests a virtual conspiracy against the plain demands

WHO STRUCK BILLY PATTERSON?

The Identity of the Assailed Party Fully

William Patterson was a very wealthy tradesman or merchant of Baltimore, in the state of Mayland. In the early days of Franklin county, Ga., he bought up a great many tracts of land in the county, and spent a good portion of his time in looking after his interests there. He was being assaulted and were told that the said to be as strong as a bear and brave as whole of the police force and if necessary a lion, but like all brave men he was a lover military protection also would be at their of peace, and, indeed, a good pious man. Nevertheless, his wrath could be excited to a fighting pitch. On one occasion he attend-Most of the remaining stock of the Seried a public gathering in the lower part of Franklin county, at some district court ground. During the day two opposing bullies and their friends raised a row, and an execution sued for by Mr. Wyatt rep- a general fight was the consequence. At the beginning of the affray, and before the fighting began, Billy Patterson ran into the crowd to persuade them not to fight, but to make peace and be friends. But his efforts for peace were unavailing, and while making them some of the crowd in the general melee struck Billy Patmeeting of the board of directors of the terson a severe blow from behind. Billy Pennsylvania railroad held to-day George at once became fighting mad, and cried out at the top of his voice, "Who struck Billy Patterson?" No one could or would tell him who was the guilty party. He then proposed to give any man $100 who would tell him "who struck Billy Patterson." From $100 he arose to $1,000, but not $1,000 would induce any man to tell him "who struck Billy Patterson." And years afterward, in his will, he related the above facts, and bequeathed $1,000 to be paid by his executors to the man who would tell "who struck Billy Patterson." His will is recorded in the ordinary's office at Carnes-

ville, Franklin county, Georgia, and any one curious about the matter can there

Chinese in New York.

The New York correspondent of the Buffalo Courier furnishes this information: "The Chines in New York, where they become more and more numerous very fast, are very like ourselves in one respect—they care great deal more about money than about religion. One of the charges against the Chinese, by the way—that they don't marry-is not quite true. Some of them do marry-when they can get white wives. A Chinaman and a white girl went to the mayor's office the other day and were made man and wife. A short time before another Chinaman and a white woman, who appeared as his wife, were in the police court to settle a row about the name of asking the Legislature to forbid this kind of miscegenation, but what it may amount Chinese in New York are employed in this way. I understand that some who have tried Chinamen have been glad to get rid of them after a few weeks. There is no particular complaint, but a sort of general lissatisfaction."

A Boomlet in China Mugs. The Pittsburgh Pottery and Glassmare Reporter says: Once in a while a demand rises suddenly for some odd article or other, and the stocks of it in dealers' hands are exhausted and the people have to wait their turn for being served, just as they have in a crowded barber shop. The latest instance of this kind is the call for barber's china mugs. Every man,old as wellas young, appears to have become possessed with a desire to have a private mug at his barber's; and the result is a famine in those humble but useful vessels. A Pittsburgh decorator informs us that not a single mug is to be had in New York city, and orders, which are numerous, will have to wait fresh invoices from abroad. This decorator has been compelled to suspend operations missioners for whose expenses the House for several weeks and give his workmen a holiday on this account, much against his

MEDICAL.

Brandy as a Medicine. The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those af-

Indigestion and Dyspepsia. BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure may such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of ses. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—
A hard-working farmer had been milicited with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's koot Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-
